

THE CULINARY JOURNEY OF CHEF EDDEN YAP

Executive Chinese Chef

From humble beginnings in Jinjang, Kuala Lumpur, Chef Edden Yap embarked on an extraordinary culinary journey at just 15 years old, mastering the time-honoured techniques of Cantonese cuisine.

His path has taken him across the globe, from Dubai to Greater China, including Macau, where he immersed himself in an international dining scene that inspired him to innovate and push the boundaries of traditional Cantonese dishes.

With three decades of culinary experience, Chef Edden has been instrumental in the success of award-winning Chinese restaurants. Notable achievements include Lotus Palace in The Parisian Macao, which earned a one-diamond rating in Meituan's prestigious 2019 Black Pearl Restaurant Guide, and DIVA in W Macau, which was awarded 100 Top Tables for Best Cuisine in 2024 by South China Morning Post.

Now at Hai Tien Lo, Chef Edden is set to blend modern presentations with classic Cantonese recipes. Each dish tells a story, showcasing his deep respect for culinary heritage while embracing contemporary techniques.

His signature creations, such as Deep-fried Ibérico Pork Spareribs in Creamy Sauce, topped with Shredded Lime and Stewed Japanese Rice Vermicelli with Pan-fried Lobster Meat and Scallop, in house-made Sour Tomato Broth reflect his bold creativity. Meanwhile, beloved classics, such as Braised South African Fresh Abalone and Sea Cucumber stuffed with Shrimp Paste, in Oyster Abalone Sauce and Double-boiled Dendrobium Chicken Soup with Fish Maw, Dried Scallops, and Sea Whelk remain staples on the Hai Tien Lo menu.

Community and celebration are the soul of Cantonese cuisine. Every meal shared at Hai Tien Lo unites hearts and creates lasting memories.
